

#84 Barbados vs. Guyana

Barbados Football Association Technical Centre, Bridgetown, BRB

Barbados and Guyana have a rich history. In 22 previous matches, Guyana achieved 9 wins, 7 draws, and six losses, scoring 35 goals and conceding 3.

The last time they faced each other was in an international friendly on March 27, 2022, with a 5-0 win for Guyana, featuring goals from Quincy Adams, Pernel Schultz, Omari Glasgow (x2), and Neil Danns at Hasely Crawford Stadium, Port of Spain (Mar 27, 2022).

The rivalry extended to the 2019/20 Concacaf Nations League qualifiers.

In Round 1 of 2018/19, Guyana claimed a 3-0 victory. The match originally ended in a 2-2 draw at the Synthetic Track and Field Facility; however, the Concacaf Disciplinary Committee awarded a 3-0 win to Guyana after Barbados fielded two ineligible players (Hallam Hope and Krystian Pearce).

They also met in the Concacaf qualifiers for the FIFA World Cup Brazil 2014 (2011-2013), with both matches resulting in identical scores in favor of Guyana (2-0 and 0-2).

Concacaf FIFA World Cup Brazil 2024 Qualifiers:

Guyana 2-0 Barbados (Shawn Beveney and Charles Pollard), Second Round (Group B) - Guyana National Stadium, Georgetown, GUY (Sep 2, 2011).

Barbados 0-2 Guyana (Anthony Abrams and Chris Nurse), Second Round (Group B) - Waterford National Stadium, Bridgetown, BRB (Oct 7, 2011).
